

OVERVIEW

A real estate investment trust with a national portfolio of commercial properties, retained Wolf Pay to oversee the payments of a number of reoccurring monthly services, including but not limited to utilities.

Wolf Pay subsequently eliminated late payment issues and service disconnections while providing key service usage data and important Energy Star portal updates.

RESULT

The client saved over $224,000 in late payments and admin cost annually

